

Speak Active English

Make up structures based on the sentences below

Indirect questions (can you tell me...?/do you know...?/I wonder.../etc.)

Where did she go?

Why are they doing that?

Whose car is this?

Who broke the window?

What was he thinking about when he did that?

Passive/active

They didn't invite me.

We think he's guilty.

Where did you send him?

Who told you he was hired?

We've been thinking about this project for a long time.

She is believed to steal the money.

Why is that table being moved?

Nobody understands the question.

They could buy more presents like these.

We suppose he will get there on time.

Conditional

I wanted to go but I wasn't invited.

I would like to go tomorrow but I'm not sure.

Of course you can't go out now under this rain!

I tried to study maths but I wasn't focused so I quit.

Prepositions

Think/talk about

Interested in

Be used to

Before/after

Present perfect

I don't know if you visited Mendoza.

The last time I saw my best friend was 3 months ago.

She went to the bus stop 20 minutes ago. She's still there waiting for the bus.

Write down two relative clauses (defining/non-defining)

The film was great. It was written and produced by a famous director.

The car is being repaired now. I bought it a long time ago.