

Inversion in English - Advanced English Grammar

A. Rewrite using the word given

1. She wanted to finish on time so that she could come back home. Not only
2. He worked so hard that he could barely walk that evening. So
3. As soon as he was promoted, he started making changes. No sooner
4. It was such an incredible experience that we wanted to do it again. Such
5. I'll let you know if I arrive on time. Should
6. It wasn't until more people came to help that they could put out the fire. Only when
7. He will never accept your offer. Under no circumstances
8. "I wasn't able to hear anything." Neither
9. I wouldn't have missed that chance if I had known about it. Had
10. He had no idea that his partner had been involved in an accident. Little 11. The rain started as soon as they arrived. Hardly...when
12. He was a student with a lot of dedication. Rarely

B. Inversion with So / Neither

1. I'd love to have more free time. So / she
2. They've been there before. So / I

3. I don't agree with him on that. Neither / we
4. My best friend couldn't make it to the last interview. Neither / most of them
5. I should pay more attention next time. So / I
6. He's never been here. Neither / his family
7. I understood what he meant. So / most of us
8. We don't need more than this. Neither / my sister
9. He changed his mind. So / the rest of the team
10. We'd never heard that before. Neither / my partners
11. She's going to be ready on time. So / the rest of the team

C. Quick Challenge

Rewrite: I had never seen such a professional presentation before. Never Rewrite: He only understood the importance of the decision later. Only later