

WHOSE vs WHO ... BELONG TO?

Different ways of asking for possession.

Exercise 1 — Complete with WHOSE

1. _____ phone is ringing?
2. _____ keys are these?
3. _____ car was parked outside?
4. _____ idea could this be?
5. _____ books are those on the table?
6. _____ jacket is this?

Exercise 2 — Complete with DO / DOES / DID

1. Who _____ this laptop belong to?
2. Who _____ these documents belong to?
3. Who _____ that car belong to?
4. Who _____ this office belong to?
5. Who _____ those bags belong to?

Exercise 3 — Rewrite using BELONG TO

Example: Whose phone is this? → Who does this phone belong to?

1. Whose car is that? → _____
2. Whose keys are these? → _____

3. Whose computer was that? → _____
4. Whose books are these? → _____
5. Whose bag was this? → _____

Exercise 4 — Rewrite using WHOSE

1. Who does this phone belong to? → _____
2. Who do these keys belong to? → _____
3. Who did that car belong to? → _____
4. Who does this jacket belong to? → _____

Exercise 5 — Choose the correct option

1. (Whose / Who's) phone is this?
2. (Whose / Who's) coming to the meeting?
3. (Whose / Who's) keys are these?
4. (Whose / Who's) your manager?
5. (Whose / Who's) laptop was that?

Exercise 6 — Translate into natural English

1. ¿De quién es este teléfono? → _____
2. ¿De quién son estas llaves? → _____
3. ¿A quién pertenece ese auto? → _____

4. ¿De quién era ese bolso? → _____

5. ¿De quién podría ser esta idea? → _____

6. ¿A quién pertenecían esos documentos? → _____