PARTICIPLE CLAUSES

Shorter, smoother and more sophisticated sentence patterns. Participle clauses can make written and spoken English more concise, especially when the relationship between ideas is clear.

Complete the sentences with participle clauses

1. The body _____ for cause of death is still there. (examine)

2. Two workers _____ in the collapse were taken to hospital. (injure)

3. _____ the high inflation, salaries are worth less. (give)

4. Only after _____ on the basic points did the president sign the agreement. (agree)

5. The woman _____ at the theatre was _____ dead hours later. (shout / find)

6. Firefighters entered the building, _____ their lives were at stake. (know)

7. The girl _____ in the forest is getting better. (find)

8. A strike _____ at the moment is in search of a salary raise. (hold)

9. The dog _____ stuck in the sewage was rescued. (find)

10. An asteroid _____ toward Earth was detected yesterday. (head)

11. After _____ his speech, he came back to his seat. (give)

12. _____ so confused was the reason why I made that mistake. (be)

13. Not _____ to be rude, he kept his opinion to himself. (want)

14. _____ by the long journey, they decided to rest. (exhaust)

15. _____ all night, she finally passed the exam. (study)

© Speak Active English – Milton Viera.